IN A VIENNA FLAT.

WHAT "PEEPING TOM" SAW.

The story of a "Peeping Tom" and the life led by the Austrian wife of an English engineer in Vienna was unfolded in the Divorce Court to the President (Sir Henry Duke) when Mr. Arnold Hodgkinson sought the dissolution of his marriage on the ground of the alleged misconduct of his wife with the co-respondent, Albert Frederick Tinnell, formerly a quarter-master-sergeant with an Allied Mission in Vienna. A decree nisi was granted.

The husband's story was that he married his wife in 1909. One night in April, 1913, he found that his wife had gone away, leaving behind a message on a piece of paper saying that she had left him for ever. At the same time she asked him to send on her things to Vienna. A few days later she returned. He declined to live with her any longer, and they separated, she receiving an allowance.

In 1919 they met again in England, when the wife wanted to be taken back again. He refused, and when he mentioned he would divorce her she declared that she would kill him and commit suicide rather. It was not until February, 1921, he obtained information of her mode of life and commenced these proceedings.

PEEPHOLES IN THE DOOR.

Evidence was given as to the wife living with the co-respondent for six months at an address in Vienna. Franz Roth, master carpenter, related how he had a shop adjoining Mrs. Hodgkinson's rooms in the Sandberggasse, Vienna. The glass door between the rooms he had boarded up, but in consequence of the lady's conduct he bored two peepholes through which he looked.

Mr. Bayford, K.C. (for the husband): What did you see?—I saw them together in bed.

What else did you see?—Oh, they kissed—and I could say more. (Laughter.)

This was early in the morning, and co-respondent visited the lady almost every day, added witness.

Mrs. Mary Hodgkinson, who gave an address in Manchester, said that while in Austria she corresponded with her husband and wanted to return to him. "She had many relations in the Austrian Army, and during the war some of them used to stay in her rooms on their way home on leave to the mountains where their people lived. The soldiers slept on the sofa. She first met co-respondent in December, 1918, at the office of the Food Distribution Commission, his rank being that of quartermaster-sergeant. Sometimes he called on her in connection with the Food Commission.

Mr. Bucknill: Did he ever come alone and stay in your rooms?—Never.

Did you know about the two spyholes in the door?—No; there was a curtain over the door and a wardrobe against it.

In cross-examination witness admitted that two of her soldier cousins had slept in her room.

Mr. Bayford: Either of them sleep with you?—No; but we regard cousins just like our own brothers.

Co-respondent, who had come from Vienna specially to give evidence, said he was married and was never in respondent's rooms alone and had never committed adultery with Mrs. Hodgkinson. After she left Vienna for England witness took over her rooms.

"A LONELY SOLDIER."
The witness was questioned with regard to a letter written after Mrs. Hodgkinson had left, which said: "I think I must thank you very much indeed, Mrs. D. for the nice girl. She was certainly wonderfully pretty, (but too cold). I really made me long for the previous inhabitant all the more." (Signed) A Lonely Soldier.

It may have been mere leg-pulling," suggested witness.

Counsel: The previous inhabitant of the rooms was Marie Hodgkinson?—Yes. But I never signed myself "A Lonely Soldier." I never was lonely.

The President said he was satisfied that adultery had been proved.

SURGERY STRUGGLE.

THOUGHT IT WAS A "PUB."

A man who, it was suggested, mistook a doctor's surgery for a public-house next door, was charged at Feltham.

He was Albert George Hughes, of Windsor, and he was charged with assaulting Dr. Arthur Herzer, of Colnbrook, and C. P. Stockwell, as well as with being drunk.

The strange scene in the surgery was described by the doctor, who said that Hughes was among a number of people waiting to see him. He saw at once that the accused was drunk, and he asked him what he wanted. The man said, "Nothing," and witness asked him to leave. He thereupon jumped up, and before he knew where he was Hughes struck him with his fist. Then they had a "rough and tumble" for about ten minutes, but in the end the man got away and witness telephoned to the police.

The Chairman: Why did he go to your surgery?

Witness: I think he mistook it for a public-house, as there is one next door. He was very drunk.

Prisoner: If I hadn't been drunk I would not have been there at all.

Prisoner said he had had "two plates of old," and did not remember what happened. He was fined £1 for the assault on Dr. Herzer, £1 for using obscene language, £1 for being drunk, and £7 10s. for the assault on Police-constable Stockwell.

NO SLEEPING PARTNER.

A WIFE'S COMPLAINT.

"Must I live with a man who goes out every night and comes back in the morning?" asked a married woman at Willesden.

Magistrate: Does he support you? Applicant: We have a shop and run it together, but this state of things ruins my health.

Magistrate: There is no law that says a man must sleep in his own house.

Applicant: He says he goes to his mother's house at night, but I have my doubts. He simply turns up every morning, stays in the shop, and eats the meals I cook for him, never comes into the rest of the house to me and my children.

She was referred to the Court matrimonial.

From a story... She held out her hand and the young man took it and departed.

"TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE"

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1923.

ANOTHER MILESTONE.

The new year is here! Twelve months ago to-day, our holiday pleasures finally over, we greeted the unseen with this same cheer, little knowing (since coming events were prudent with their shadows) that the Colony faced one of the most eventful years in its history. Princes and pirates, typhoons and strikes—the distinguished; the desperate, the picturesque and the fearful, each has played its part in the local pageant. The new year, here, this varied tale belongs to "the dark backward and abysm of time" everyone quotes "The Tempest" now—and leaving the dead past to bury its dead, we seek to peer into the future. The new year is here.

What will 1923 bring forth? Many fine developments in the Colony, assuredly, for already the foundations for many have been laid. Shall we see trade vastly improved, our shipping traffic ever greater? Industrial calm—or must we again beware the Ides of March? Will the Colony—but what profit these puny efforts to scramble on to the knees of the Gods where rest these things until their time has arrived? Little enough, in sooth, when no man may know "the end of this day's business ere it come." And well 'tis so, truly. Had we known this day twelve months ago the full tale for 1923 then had our passing days been less joyous, then had our foreboding increased every week. But we did not know and we did not brood.

The new year is here. Whatever it hold, good and bad, we greet it with a cheer.

MR. E. R. HALLIFAX
HONOURED.

The Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax, Secretary for Chinese Affairs, is Hongkong's only representative in the New Year honour list. He becomes a Commander of the Order of the British Empire and, for his work during the past year alone, the distinction is richly merited. That the twelve months which have just ended there has been no more eventful period industrially in the Colony's history and to Mr. Hallifax fell the greater part of the burden.

An enormous strain was put upon Mr. Hallifax during the trying and protracted negotiations which followed the seamen's decision to strike nearly a year ago and in his capacity as an intermediary between the parties his tact, ability and wide knowledge of matters Chinese did much to smooth the way towards a settlement.

Mr. Hallifax, who is an Oxford B.A., was born in 1874 and has been in the Colonial service for 25 years. He came to Hongkong in 1898 and has at various times filled the posts of acting O.S.P., acting Registrar General and private secretary to H. E. the Governor in addition to his present one. He received the O.B.E. in 1918.

Chen Ping, a coal merchant residing at No. 7 Elgin Street, in a report to the Police, states that at 6.30 a.m. on the 31st, he was awakened by his concubine, who, slept in another cubicle, shouting "Thieves." When he got up, he noticed three men rushing down the stairs. Subsequently his concubine informed him that the men seized her by the neck and ordered her to surrender her keys. Having no alternative but to comply, the thieves thereupon opened and ransacked the drawers. Jewellery and clothing valued at $1,048 were stolen.

Wood, this morning for having in his possession a revolver which had been taken to pieces, the six parts being concealed separately. His excuse was that the pistol was handed to him by a clansman in America, who entrusted him to deliver it, with other effects, to another clansman at his native village.

MOTOR SMASH.

NAVAL OFFICER KILLED.

LAST NIGHT'S TRAGEDY.

ACCIDENT RETURNING FROM REFUELING DAY.

Lieutenant Commander Hooper, R.N., of H.M.S. "Hawkins" died in the Royal Naval Hospital this morning from injuries received in a motor car smash early this morning.

Lieutenant Commander Hooper was one of six naval officers who had spent the evening at Repulse Bay and were returning to the city at 1 a.m. in car No. 118, belonging to the Cunningham Garages. The car had passed through Shaukiwan and was proceeding round Causeway Bay when the steering gear became deranged. This mishap occurred just past the polo ground. The car struck a turn-post and the occupants were thrown heavily out. All escaped with minor injuries except Lieutenant Commander Hooper who was badly hurt. He was taken to the Royal Naval Hospital and there he died this morning.

Lieutenant Commander Hooper will be buried this afternoon, the funeral passing the monument at 5 p.m. Lieutenant Hooper was a young man—only 31 years of age. He was not married. Coming out to the China Station in November of 1921 he was posted to the "Hawkins" and joined the Commander-in-Chief's staff.

Lieutenant Commander Hooper was a very keen sportsman, playing cricket, football and polo. He was one of the Navy's representatives in the triangular tournament on Monday. Owing to his untimely death the polo match arranged for this afternoon was cancelled.

Lieut. Commander Hooper was very popular with his fellow officers and had a wide circle of friends. Deep sympathy will be felt with his relatives at home.

REAR LIGHT TALE.

MOTOR DRIVER PREVARICATED IN COURT.

Mr. A. H. Rows, manager of the United Motor Car Co. was summoned as the Magistrate this morning for not having the rear light of motor car No. 27 sufficiently illuminated on the night of November 17. At a previous hearing the driver was charged and he made a statement to the effect that a defect in the rear light had been reported on several occasions to the management.

The summons against Mr. Rows was taken out under instructions from the Magistrate, Mr. R. E. Liddell.

Mr. S. G. N. Tinson, who appeared for Mr. Rows, stated that the light was bright enough, but either the number plate or the light itself might have become displaced.

Lance Sergeant McWalter stated in evidence that the light was burning brightly but the number on the rear light did not reflect clearly on it. Questioned as to whether he maintained his previous statement that reports had been made on several occasions to the management the driver said that he mentioned the matter to the clerk-in-charge. He went on the speak of faulty wires and the probability of fusing but was cut short by the Magistrate, who told him that he was prevaricating and giving unsatisfactory evidence. The driver was fined $10 for the offence.

At the conclusion of the case, Mr. Liddell explained that he instructed the police to take out a summons against the owners because of the driver's statement, which had not been substantiated.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

K.O.O.'S ANNUAL SPORTS.

There was, as was pointed out during the speaking, only one thing wrong with the children's sports held this year by the Kowloon Cricket Club—there were fewer children there than usual. But why this should have been so it is difficult to imagine for it is one of the red letter days in the juvenile calendar. At any rate those who were there had the time of their lives and for the given ups too what with the brilliant machine and the pleasant music that the "King's" band provided it was indeed a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon.

There were races of all sorts for children of all sizes and in addition there was the coconut shy (ruled over most efficiently by Messrs. R. E. Nicholls and Roethen) and a bun p from which was furnished a gift for those who had not been fortunate enough to win a prize otherwise.

H.E. the Governor arrived here during the afternoon and in thanking him for coming the Vice President of the Club (Mr. R. E. Liddell) said that was only one thing for regret all that was that the children were fewer than before.

His Excellency humorously observed that he had made a New Year resolution not to make unnecessary speeches and he was going to begin at once. After briefly congratulating the Club officials and prize-winners he proceeded to present the youngsters with their prizes. Afterwards three cheers were given for the Governor and the gathering dispersed.

EDUCATION FOR CHINA.

BOXER INDEMNITY SCHEME.

A BISHOP'S ADVICE.

LONDON, January 1.

The Bishop of Exeter in a letter to the Times while congratulating the Government on its decision to spend the Boxer indemnity on promoting education in China reminds them of a danger. He points out that China is entering a difficult period of industrial history when the machine and factory will take the place of manual work. Speaking from now accepted views based on past experience in Britain he thinks that if the education promoted in China is purely utilitarian—merely glorified technical colleges—the result will be to destroy the old Confucian ideals without replacement by anything higher.

He considers that it is vital to both China and the whole world that the contemplated education should teach men to care for the well being of their workers as well as teaching a journey in the manufacture of goods and the accumulation of wealth. He says that if the workman has a complete with an ill paid fellow labourer working in squalid and insanitary surroundings his standard of living must deteriorate. He enjoins the Government not to neglect the encouragement of China's spiritual uplift at the expense of advancing China's material prosperity. "That way," he says, "is a world disaster lies."

INDIAN NATIONALIST CONGRESS.

LAUSANNE NEWS EXCITEMENT.

GAYA, December 31.

The Nationalist Congress has rejected the proposal to enter the legislative Councils, by 1740 to 890 votes, after a five hours' debate, but adopted a proposal to leave the present non-cooperation programme unchanged.

The unfavourable news from Lausanne has considerably stirred the Khilafat congress circles. In the course of the Council's debate, a Punjabi Mohammedan unsuccessfully moved the adjournment to consider the situation with a view to the immediate launching of mass civil disobedience.

ALL FUTURE DEBTS REPUDIATED.

GAYA, January 1.

The Nationalist congress carried a resolution repudiating all debts and liabilities honorably incurred by the government of India but accepting existing liabilities.

GAYA, January 1.

A significant manifesto has been issued announcing the formation of a party called the "Congress Khilafat Swarajya Party," under the leadership of Mr. Das, which will work within the Nationalist Congress having full faith in non-violent non-cooperation but believing that the programme just adopted by the Congress is not conducive to the speedy attainment of the Swaraj. It will try to convert the majority of Congressmen to its views. Mr. Das meanwhile has resigned the presidency of the All India Committee.

STILL CLOUDED.

OUTLOOK FOR 1923.

LONDON, January 1.

The Newspapers in their year end reviews give anticipations which strike a sober note. Politically they recognize that the international outlook is still clouded notwithstanding the long interval since the armistice. There is a disposition to credit America with a practical effort to help dissipate the European mists. Individually they conclude that the bottom of the commercial depression has been reached though there are few signs of an upward movement yet. The fact is not lost sight of the deplorable lack of employment and the necessity to alleviate the situation.

WUCHOW CAPTURED.

A BLOODLESS VICTORY.

COUP BY YUNNANESE TROOPS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CANTON, January 2. During the week end military developments, bearing important significance on Kwangtung politics, have been reported. The news that has filtered through is very vague but one fact seems to have been established. Several rival elements, hitherto content to remain comparatively inactive in Kwangsi, have become active and occupied Wuchow, the Cantonese troops affecting a hurried retreat down the West River. No logical reason can be adduced for this invasion. The situation is most complex—one ventures to predict that not even the leaders themselves are in a position to judge the trend of events in their real light. Apparently, agreement has been arrived at by parties who have been opposed to one another, and, unlooked for developments have followed with remarkable rapidity. By suddenly effecting this coup, elements previously considered negligible, have struck a severe blow at the prestige of General Chen Chiung-ming's government, and his position to day is fraught with danger. Preparations claim that the pro-Sun forces in Fokien are on operating by simultaneously invading Kwangtung from the north east. What is not readily understood by the public is the declaration of the invaders who state that they are complying with the orders of "President Sun."

Space will not permit of a detailed review of the events leading up to the fall of Wuchow, but a brief explanation will show the "heroes" in their true perspective. The main arm of the self-styled "Rebel Suppression Army" is the Yunnan troops in Kwangsi under Yang Hsi-mac, a divisional commander recently elevated to "Director of operations." A band of hardy frontiersmen, the Yunnan troops, have since the Revolution, offered their services to the highest bidder. Unable to find a domicile in their native province, they have after many vicissitudes, occupied the Chum-chow district of Kwangsi. Shum Hing-ying, who may be remembered as Tu-chun Mu Ying-hien's lieutenant commands another branch of the invading forces. These are Kwangsi troops, returned from Hunan. Shum overcame the brigade at Kueilin and from there, has been sparring for political openings. The campaign may be designated as a direct result of the superfluous military, who like all rest of us must live. Although wider political significance is claimed for the movement, under the guise of loyalty to Dr. Sun Yat-sen—it is not disputed that Dr. Sun may be in favour of it—there is difficulty in reconciling oneself to the belief that it was engineered from patriotic motives. If the leaders' previous history is any criterion, one cannot but be of the opinion that they are marking a bid for political enhancement and personal enrichment. But should the present movement be attended with any degree of success, there is reason to think that it may be exploited to such an extent as to influence the political situation in the whole of China. Unable to support their men by extracting levies from the districts they occupied, the Yunnan commander and Shum, have combined to obtain a footing in Kwangtung, after casting covetous eyes on her fertile soil. They induced Lau Tzu-wan, leader of the First Kwangsi Corps to join hands with them. (Lau has hitherto been General Chen's protégé but there must be some reason for his change of attitude.) Meeting with no resistance up to Tang Yuen, they advanced on Yung Hui. Stationed here were two brigades of Cantonese troops previously owing allegiance to Hsu Shung-chi but later incorporated into Chen's army. They capitulated without a shot having been fired and, so the reports say, seemed glad to go over to the other side. From here, a rapid advance was made on Wuchow, Shum attacking in another direction from Chiu Ping. Hung Leuk, the Kwangtung Commander of the recently augmented garrison, is said to have fled to Canton. An unconfirmed report says that one street was looted by the soldiers prior to leaving, but order was soon restored. Frank efforts are being made by the Canton authorities to cope with the situation. Every available means of transport was requisitioned to rush reinforcements up the West River. In Kuli, who retired a few months ago, has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the West River Defences. Strict precautions are taken on the Canton-Bamshui Railway, and martial law has been proclaimed from Shing Hing upwards. The Canton troops expelled from Wuchow are now at Fung

Chuen and troops are being sent from the East River districts to strengthen the defences at Tack Hing. It is not expected that the Yunnans will push home their success as the combining factions have first to settle the guardianship of Wuchow, a rich prize. Canton is affected to the extent that transport is seriously depleted through commandeering and the paper currency has further depreciated.

Passengers who came down to Hongkong by the "Taming" bear out our correspondent's narrative. As soon as news of the approach of the Yunnans reached Wuchow, a general exodus commenced and the down-boats were absolutely full. Should a protracted campaign begin, Hongkong business houses will be affected by the difficulty in getting goods through while the public is confronted with a possible interference to the supplies of meat, poultry and firewood, for which Hongkong is almost entirely dependent on Wuchow.

The foreign community at Wuchow is not threatened with any impending danger, but to safeguard against eventualities, the British Consul at Canton has sent up a gunboat, which has already anchored in the River.

AT HIS WIFE'S REQUEST.

British Soldier in India Tells How Baby's Own Tablets Have Helped Their Infant Son.

Corporal A. L. Gidding of the 1st Bitt Royal Pioneers, stationed at Trilumgherry, India, writes:—

"My wife asks me to inform you that she has found Baby's Own Tablets simply invaluable for our baby, now 12 months old, when the child has been troubled with sleeplessness, constipation, teething troubles and feverishness. Parents everywhere, once they have tried Baby's Own Tablets for their little ones, never resort again to the old-fashioned teething powders and purgatives usually given to children. Among those present were the Hon. Mr. A. G. Stephen, the Hon. Mr. A. O. Lang, Mr. R. H. B. Hancock, Mr. R. M. Dyer, Mr. D. Templeton, Mr. D. K. Blair and others.

After the match silver spoons were presented to the members of the winning team by Mrs. J. Reid.

Speeches expressing regret at the defeat of the Scottish team were made by Mr. Reid and Mr. Russell (Scottish Captain) who said they were entitled to a replay on the ground that one of the English skips was a member of St. Andrew's Society.

Mr. Edwards (English Captain) said the thanks of all present were due to Mr. Reid for the splendid afternoon's entertainment.

Mr. Hamilton confessed that he was the member referred to by Mr. Russell and told amidst much laughter how his services were not much sought after last year and how on the present occasion he had been pressed to play for both sides.

The Hon. Mr. A. G. Stephen, in thanking the Kowloon Bowling Club on behalf of the visitors opened his remarks with a reference to Mr. Hamilton's speech which he thought betrayed his nationality. "If he had been playing for the Scottish side instead of myself, Mr. Stephen said jocularly, it would have made all the difference."

Cheers were heartily given for Mr. and Mrs. Reid and the opposing teams. Mrs. Reid was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses in a silver holder.

EUROPE'S PROBLEM.

PARIS, December 30th. A meeting of experts in sitting endeavoring to devise a system of guarantees in exchange for a moratorium to Germany.

WASHINGTON, December 30th. Senator Borah has introduced his amendment to the Naval Bill, on the advice that it was harmful, pending the negotiations with Europe.

NEWHAVEN, December 30th. Speaking at Connecticut, Mr. Hughes, Secretary of State, suggested the settlement of the reparations problem by its removal from political handling to a special board of experts, comprising different nationalities, whose findings might be dealt with by the various nations according to their own judgment.

LATON. Mr. Hughes, while insisting on the foundation of a settlement of the reparations question, said there was absolutely no connection between reparations and Europe's war debt. He contended that the Allies' indebtedness had not diminished Germany's capacity to pay, just as the removal of the indebtedness would not increase Germany's capacity. There was not the slightest desire that France should lose her just claims, but America did not wish to see Germany's economic recovery retarded by the occupation of Europe. He firmly disavowed measures which, instead of producing reparations, would threaten disaster, and said that a distinguished American would be willing to serve on the proposed special board of experts.

Referring to the three great naval powers were not under any agreement to limit the total tonnage of combatant craft, it might be possible to arrange a modus vivendi, and thus preclude wasteful and unnecessary competition.

The Cabinet Council has endorsed the main principle of the policy which Mr. Bonar Law will expound at Paris.

The engagement programme has not been disclosed, but it is fore-shadowed that Great Britain will offer to partially remit her Allies' indebtedness, if the latter consent to the reduction of the German indemnity to a figure in the neighborhood of £200 million sterling.

It is stated that Germany will propose a moratorium for Germany of between two years and four years, subject to effective measures connected with the re-establishment of German finances and the securing of economic guarantees from Germany, even laying down penalties in the event of non-fulfillment, but Great Britain will object to the French so-called productive pledges.

LAUSANNE, December 30th. Lord Curzon is going to Paris on Sunday in order to consult with Mr. Bonar Law in regard to the reparations question. He will return to Lausanne on Tuesday.

An official communiqué protests against the Reparations Commission's decision that Germany is voluntarily defaulting regarding deliveries of timber, and says that the accusation is a complete distortion of facts.

WASHINGTON, December 30th. Mr. Barnes, President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, has published a cablegram from the Deutsche Industrie Handelsbank, Berlin, stating that German business men would welcome an American commission to study the economic situation, and to determine the amount of reparations to be paid.

Mr. Barnes has replied suggesting waiting until after the meeting of Prelimiers in Paris.

PARIS, December 30th. Premier Poincaré, speaking in the Chamber of Deputies, said that the Reparations Commission in Germany were no longer meeting with the difficulties experienced before the Ambassadors' Conference had taken up their vigorous attitude. He hoped the example would serve for the future.

INDIAN CONGRESS.

GAYA, December 30th. The Subjects Committee of the National Congress has passed a resolution appealing to the country to supply 50,000 volunteers and twenty-five lakhs of rupees, preparatory to launching a civil disobedience campaign.

The Khilafat Conference has passed a resolution, by a large majority, in favour of a boycott of British goods, and appointing a committee to arrange accordingly.

NAGPUR, December 30th. The Moderate Congress has passed a resolution trusting that the Secretary of State will give full effect to the principle laid down by the Joint Committee of the Imperial Parliament, to the effect that wherever the Raj and the Legislature are agreed there shall be no interference from a higher authority, by releasing the Raj from the necessity to consult him previously in such circumstances.

NAGPUR, December 30th. The National Liberal Federation has passed a resolution urging acceleration in regard to the introduction of responsible government, demanding the reduction of the British element in the Indian army, and the resolution appeals to Indians to enlist in the territorial force.

GAYA, December 30th. The National Congress has heavily defeated the resolution proposing a boycott of British goods.

Opponents proposed to be impracticable policy which would drive economically inferior to the Indian consumer. It would also antagonize British Labour.

GAYA, December 30th. The National Congress has rejected the proposal that Nationalists shall become candidates for the Legislative Councils. This proposal was made by Mr. Das in his presidential address.

U.S. MINES.

NEW YORK, December 30th. A scheme for the nationalization of mines has been drawn up by the officials of the Mine Workers Union. It estimates that the cost to the Government would be four and a half million dollars.

LAUSANNE CONFERENCE.

LAUSANNE, December 30th. The Minorities Sub-Commission has made some progress. The Turks refused to agree to the establishment of any control over minorities, but this decision need not be taken into account since the treatment of minorities has become a matter for the League of Nations, which Turkey is joining.

The Turks accepted reciprocity as between Turkey and Greece.

LAUSANNE, December 30th. The Turkish reply to Lord Curzon regarding Mosul completely maintains their previous viewpoint, requiring that Mosul be incorporated into Turkey.

LAUSANNE, December 30th. The Russians have issued an appeal to Americans, protesting against the Allied Black Sea policy, hinting that the Washington decisions are thereby rendered impossible and requesting America to help build up Russia.

At a meeting of the Economic Sub-Commission, held this afternoon, the Turks agreed to recognize the decisions of the Allied High Commissioners at Constantinople.

AUSTRIAN LOAN.

PARIS, December 30th. The Chamber of Deputies has passed a Bill authorizing the French Government to guarantee the Austrian Loan.

Premier Poincaré announced that France is willing to enter into negotiations in reference to Franco-Austrian commercial relations. He said that the loan scheme was drawn up in collaboration with all the Governments belonging to the League of Nations.

IRISH EXECUTIONS.

BERLIN, December 30th. It is officially announced that two men were executed in Kilkenny this morning.

BRITISH HONOURS.

LONDON, December 30th. The report of the Honours Commission, mentioned in a cable message dated July 18th, recommends the appointment of a committee not exceeding three persons, who are not members of the Government, for the duration of office of the Government, to which the names of persons for appointment to any dignity or honour, owing to political services, must be submitted before they are submitted to the King; with a statement of the services and reasons for the recommendation, also a statement under the patronage of the secretary or Party manager that no payment or expectation of payment to any Party or political fund is directly or indirectly associated with the recommendation. In the event of the committee reporting against any name, and the Premier determining still to recommend that name, the King shall be informed of the committee's report. An Act should be passed penalizing anyone providing or securing or who may be considered to secure an honour in respect of payment, and anyone promising payment in order to receive an honour.

The Commission is strongly of opinion that before submitting to the King the name of any person domiciled or lately domiciled in any Dominion, the Premier, through the Colonial Secretary, should inform the Governor-General or Governor concerned, when it is understood that the Governor-General will consult with his Prime Minister.

COLONIAL INCOME TAX.

LONDON, December 30th. The Inter-Departmental Committee on Income Tax in the Colonies met this morning. The committee have agreed on a model ordinance, and recommend that this be sent to all the Colonies and Protectorates where income tax laws are already enforced, and that Colonial Governments be advised to repeal existing laws and introduce fresh legislation on the lines of the ordinance.

The provisions of the ordinance are mainly based on United Kingdom procedure. The committee suggest that the Colonies should tax income originating in the Colony or received in the Colony.

In regard to the assessment of business profits, a tax should be levied on the chargeable income of any person for the year preceding the year of assessment. A flat rate tax should be adopted in the case of companies. The Governor of a Colony may issue a proclamation exempting from tax the interest on Government loans.

With regard to the assessment of non-resident traders, the committee recommend the appointment of an agent in the United Kingdom, of each Colony imposing an income tax.

BERLIN, December 30th. Speaking at the Pan-Russian Soviet Congress at Moscow, M. Kamenoff highly approved of the agreement between Wolf and the Soviet Government. He pointed out the necessity for a definite arrangement with Mr. Trotsky of the Russo-Asiatic Consolidated Co.

PACIFIC CABLE.

LONDON, December 30th. A contract given to a Greenwich firm to construct and lay, before August, 1,900 miles of cable from Sydney to Brisbane and from Auckland to Suva, marks the first instalment of the duplication of the Pacific cable.

SOVIET CONCESSIONS.

BERLIN, December 30th. It is learned from a Russian source that British concerns, including a well-known petroleum company and a London broker, who is said to have participated in the seizure of the Krupp's agricultural concessions in Russia, are negotiating with the Soviet Government in regard to the return of the former's property in Russia, as well as new concessions.

CANTON FIRE.

MANY HOUSES GUTTED.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Canton, January 2. Canton has had another disastrous fire. One Saturday over twenty houses were gutted in Hung Tach Street, the main street of Honan. The outbreak commenced in the upper floor of a tea-house, and spread with rapidity. Using very primitive apparatus, the firemen could do little to cope with the blaze. The damage has not been ascertained but it will be heavy as all the buildings involved were used as business premises.

Just when the police departments around San Francisco Bay were instituting a search for the wife and four-years-old daughter of Edgar I. Fuller, Kiegle of the Sacramento Ku Klux Klan, who charged that his family had been kidnapped in revenge for his having attempted to cause the arrest of 175 fellow Klansmen 'or having robbed him, Mrs. Fuller and the child showed up in the Oakland district attorney's office and alleged she had been restrained by Fuller's relatives, at his instigation. She announced her intention of asking for a divorce.

F. A. Mitchell-Hedges.

Mr. F. A. He is shown here with the world's record sawfish, captured after a battle that lasted six hours. It was twenty-six feet long, with a girth of seventeen feet, and weighed 3,240 pounds. It took thirty-one men to haul it ashore.

HOLIDAY GAMES.
ARMY DEFEAT NAVY.

FIRST DIVISION:
 Kings 2 South China 2
 Ambrose 1 R.O.A. 0
 Police 0 Kowloon 0
 Hawkins 0 Tamar 0
 Club 1 Durban 0

SECOND DIVISION:
 Hawkins 6 Police 0
 Ambrose 1 Durban 0
 King's 3 R.O.A. 0
 South China A. 2 United 2
 South China B. 3 Marazion 2
 Kowloon 3 Warders 1
 St. Joseph's 3 Auxiliaries 1
 University 1 Titania 1

The games on Saturday were very evenly contested, and with the exception of the King's—Chinese, only two other teams in the First Division scored goals.

CLUB v. DURBAN.

Played on the Club ground and resulted in a win for the home team by the only goal scored in the game. This reversed the previous Saturday's decision when they went down by 4 goals to 1. The Durban on this occasion had most of the game but when in front of goal would not shoot. On the run of the game they did not deserve to lose. Fortyth was responsible for the goal scored, he beating Lawrence later on in the second half.

KING'S v. SOUTH CHINA.

This was undoubtedly the star match of the afternoon, thousands of spectators lined the Chinese ground. In the first half the Soldiers scored; Hart being responsible. Lau brought off a fine save from a penalty. Jones took the kick, and in saving the goal he hurt himself and was out for a time. The soldiers had most of the play in this half but could not increase their lead and they crossed over with a one goal lead. In the second half the King's again took off the attack and the right wing was prominent for some time. Jones was the star, and from one of Williams' centres Jones increased the score. This reverse woke up the Chinese attack. They started to come into the picture and 7 minutes from time Wong Pak Cheong beat Blanche with a rising shot. The Chinese again came to the attack and within another two minutes had drawn level amidst wild applause from the Chinese spectators. Wong Shui Wa being the scorer. The King's now tried hard to get the winning goal but over-excitement and time beat them and the game ended in a draw. Referee, Mr. Williams.

POLICE v. KOWLOON.

Played on the Navy "B" ground and ended in a goalless draw. It was a very scrappy game and neither side appeared to have any combination. The Police were fortunate to draw for the Kowloon team and were awarded a penalty when pulling one of the opposing players down. Duncan took the kick but sent yards wide of the post. Referee, Mr. Tydesley.

TAMAR v. HAWKINS.

Played on Navy "A" ground and a very fast game ended in a draw; neither side scoring. The Hawkins were undoubtedly the better team but they were weak in front of goal. Tamar had hard lines in not scoring, for Bud on one occasion was almost through but was badly brought down just outside the penalty area by Adkins, and the resultant free kick was cleared. Referee, Mr. Hollands.

AMBROSE v. R.G.A.

Played at Sookumpoo and resulted in a win for the Ambrose by one goal to none. On the run of the play a draw would have seemed the best result, but the Gunners had hard lines in front of goal. Late in the second half Welbourne scored the winning goal for the Sailors. Referee, Mr. Smith.

MONDAY'S CHARITY MATCH.

NAVY v. ARMY.

This game was played at Sookumpoo before a very large crowd of spectators, both branches of the Service being well represented. With the exception of Jones for whom Pearson deputised, the teams turned out as advertised. A very fast game was seen, and it was not until late in the second half that the decision came. Adkins in attempting to clear a spinning ball, dived into the net, and the Army ran out winners. The Navy had hard lines in being defeated for they were the better team, but they have only themselves to blame for they should have been two up before half time. Pearson at centre for the Army played a good game, but the outstanding player was undoubtedly Blanche for the Navy. Referee, Mr. Cassidy.

PROBABLY DRUNK.

THEFT CHARGE AGAINST EUROPEAN.

William Phillips Gilmore appeared before Mr. J. R. Wood on remand this morning charged with the theft of two razors and one suit of clothes from the Seamen's Institute, the property of Basil Welles, a Russian. At the previous hearing the defendant claimed that he had a suit of his own and the Magistrate instructed Det. Inspector Shaftain to examine Gilmore's property at the Institute. The Inspector reported that he found five shirts, four pairs of socks and two suits of khaki overalls. Gilmore claimed that a suit worn by another man was his and this was borne out by the man himself. The Magistrate remarked that it was not likely that Gilmore would have walked back into the Institute wearing the suit if he had stolen it. He thought that what probably happened was that the defendant was drunk and took the articles under the influence of drink. Though trouble had been caused to the police and the complainant, a conviction would not be recorded against the prisoner who was accordingly discharged.

A golf match Navy versus Army will be played at Fanling on Thursday next (January 4).

The Hongkong Jockey Club intimates that entries for the forthcoming races (February 28, March 1, 2 and 3), will close on Saturday January 27.
